Announcing a series of

Six upper palæolithic paintings from Lascaux

The above illustration describes one of six new silkscreen copies by D Mazonowicz which are published from March 1961 by St George's Gallery Prints

It measures 3′9″ x 4′10″ / 1·14m x 1·47m which is the actual size of the original. It costs £16

These prints are very large and colourful and they reproduce faithfully six of the most interesting and striking works in the entire history of art. They need not be framed and they are ideal for decoration of schools, nurseries, offices and in the home, besides their obvious value in museum display

A catalogue containing colour reproductions of all six prints, with an introduction by Dr Glyn Daniel is available, post free, at 5 shillings or 1 dollar from
